Azure Passes for the Labs

- Attendees can redeem the codes at: <https://www.microsoftazurepass.com/>.
  - Unlike the regular free trial, you do not need to enter a credit card to use an Azure pass.
  - The passes will activate on September 4th and remain active for 7 days.
  - Materials for all sessions can be found here: <https://github.com/GlobalAICommunity/GlobalAINight-September-2019> )
1. Beginner Track: Creating applications that can see, hear, speak or understand - using Microsoft Cognitive Services
  2. Beginner Track: Is that wine good or bad? A beginner tutorial on how to build a binary classification machine learning model with no code using Azure Machine Learning Visual Interface
  3. Intermediate Track: Learn how to train high accuracy machine learning models using automated machine learning
  4. Intermediate Track: Crash course on building and accelerating deep learning solutions
- Bonus content
  - We have also added some fantastic content on ML.NET provided by Mark Tabladillo, Cloud Solution Architect, Microsoft. Mark has these sessions already recorded and available on YouTube, links are available within the GitHub repo above.
